

Dear Morris

I don't know who you are but apparently you play for Fulham and have been on telly a few times. I collect autographs from anyone who can claim some degree of fame so I can try and flog them on e-Bay to anyone silly enough to pay money for them. So if you could scribble a few down and send them over I might be able to make a few quid and by myself a new shell suit. Oh, and I'm also after a new PlayStation if you could send one of them too.

Cheers,

Peter Pikey

Herr Volz

I am from Germany. I like the game of football. I think you play with great efficiency. I would like you to send me your autograph. It should be signed on to 119 gsm matt A4 paper using only a felt-tipped pen. The signature should occupy a space no greater than 4cm x 8cm. Please write only your name. No message or humorous salutation is required. I look forward to receiving this by return of post.

Thank you in advance.

Herman German
