

Dear Moritz

I think you're the greatest footballer to ever walk the face of planet earth. Franz Beckenbauer? Pele? George Best? Not even close. Your touch is immaculate, your passing is breathtaking and your work for charity is so inspiring. I actually wish I could be you and will name my first born Moritz in your honour, even if it's a girl. Would it be possible for you to send me a signed life sized cardboard cut-out to put in my living room? If you can't do this because you're busy training or out doing incredibly worthy charity work I totally understand. I will still continue to worship you for every day that I am alive.

Yours in unconditional adoration,

A Geek
